NOTICE

Having sold the Pastime theater to Mr. Jules Smith, proprietor of the Butler theater, to take effect Thursday, July 1st, I wish to avail myself of this opportunity to thank all those who have so kindly patronized the house and gave their valuable support to the same.

It is with a feeling of deep regret that Mrs. Warren and I leave Tonopah, for we have made many dear friends here whom we dislike to part from.

Adv. J28-11 W. G. WARREN.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership existing between John E. Brown and Nick Vukasovich doing business at the Stope saloon, Main street, Tonopah, Nevada, has been dissolved. Nick Vukasovich is now sole proprietor. He will pay all debts and collect all moneys due from said business.

Tonopah, Nevada, June 26, 1916.
NICK VUKASOVICH.

NOTICE TO POWER USERS

The electric current will be off on the morning of Sunday, July 4th, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

FREE BALL AND PRIZES BESIDES HOW CELEBRATION WILL COME TO CLOSE

ELEVEN PEOPLE AND GROUPS TO SHARE IN LIBERAL AWARDS

It would seem like carting coals to Newcastle to offer prizes for those who excel in splendor and originality of costume at the mardi gras ball, for the delight of the excellent floor, the dazzling illuminations, the music of a nine-piece orchestra, the spirit of jollity that will mark the grand costume ball with which the Fourth of July celebration will come to a close, particularly as it is free, should seem to be a sufficient reward for endeavor to excel. But the committee plans to add these prizes as an incentive to originality in characterizing and to elegance of attire.

The distribution of the $100 in prizes has thus been made by Alex. Dewar, the Poobah of the street spectacle and ball:

To the lady in most fancy costume, $15; second choice, $7.50. Gentleman in most fancy costume, $15; second choice, $7.50. Most original lady character, $10; second choice, $5. Most original gentleman character, $10; second choice, $5. Best sustained group, $15. Best sustained gentleman, $5. Best sustained lady, $5.

MISS FRASER LEADS IN VOTING CONTEST

NO INDICATIONS YET WHO WILL BE THE GODDESS OF LIBERTY

Leaping from fourth place to first, Miss Lena Fraser is again in the lead in the race for the coveted prize, the heralding as Goddess of Liberty in the Fourth of July celebration, to whom will be given the place of honor at each of the events on the program. The voting is now progressing more rapidly than at first and the indications are for a whirlwind finish. It is possible, even probable, that a dark horse will loom up between now and the closing of the polls that will make the leaders wish that they and their friends had put forth more strenuous efforts. Mrs. Hunt and her assistants, who have the Goddess of Liberty arrangements in their charge, are receiving many congratulations for the efficient work they are doing. Following is the vote at the count made last evening:

Lena Fraser 2475

Elizabeth Lynch 2116

Elizabeth Mervin 2063

Lucile Murphy 1511

Grace Fowler 1250

Mary Harrington 576

Florence Moore 506

Mary Lamb 506

RICH ORE OPENED IN SYLVANITE SHAFT

C. J. Corr, one of the pioneers of Sylvanite, who came in from camp last evening, brought news of a splendid development in the Welles & Riddell property. At a depth of 35 feet the pay streak in the ledge had widened to about a foot. The rock is richer than it was on the surface and samples can be taken that will run, it is estimated, a dollar a pound. Mr. Corr is arranging to start heavy work on his property, which adjoins the original strike.

DR. RICHARDS MADE DELEGATE

Dr. C. J. Richards of Tonopah this morning received from Governor Boyle the executive appointment as delegate from Nevada to the third annual Conference on Tuberculosis, which meets at Indianapolis September 25-October 1. Dr. Richards has not yet decided whether he will be able to attend the conference, but will do so if possible.

BOXING CARNIVAL ON FIFTH OF JULY

BRATTON AND MALONE PRINCIPAL EVENT AT THE AIRDOME MONDAY AFTERNOON

Tonopah will have a boxing carnival on July 5th. Jack Bratton and Frank Malone were signed up last night to box the 10-round main event at the Airdome. Bratton is well known to the fans here. Malone is a newcomer from Oakland, Cal., who has fought some of the best men in the game, and is a mighty tough boy to tackle.

The special event will bring together Nig James of Leadville, Colo., and Slick Merrill of Tonopah. They are middleweight boxers. James has fought some good men and should give Slick the battle of his life.

Herb White and Gus Rainer, both of Stockton, Cal., and who have been with us for a few weeks, will box a four-round exhibition as an opening attraction. They are both classy boys and have fought some of the best men on the coast. White is as good a lightweight as there is in the game. Malone is training every day at 2:30 p. m. at the Northern Bar. All fans are invited to witness his workouts. Bratton has been and will continue to train for the next few days at the gymnasium at 3:30 p. m.

PARADE COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES PRIZES

TELEPHONE TO ANY MEMBER FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS ABOUT EVENT

Among the many events of the 4th of July celebration the parade will command first attention. This is where everyone can be seen and everyone has a chance to win a prize. This event will take place Monday morning, the 5th, at 10 o'clock. A great many prizes will be given away. Following is a list agreed upon by the committee: Float, first prize $20, second $10. The parade committee has discretionary power to give a nucleus to each float entry. Phone one of the committee and get the facts. Best decorated automobile, $25; second, $15; third, $10. Best decorated delivery wagon, provided there are eight entries, first, $10; second, $5. Best decorated baby go-cart, first, $3; second, $2; third, $1. And every little girl in the contest will receive a coin of some value. Best decorated burro cart, first prize, $5; second, $2.50. Best decorated bicycle, first, $4; second, $2.50; third, $1. For further information phone one of the committeemen—Cavanaugh, Evans or Bayless.

WAITING FOR PINION

The new plant of machinery for the Tonopah Cash Boy has been installed and, would have been in operation today, but for a small but very necessary pinion that was missing from the conignment. It has been ordered by wire and is expected here tomorrow, when the wheels will start turning again.

WIVES AND CHILDREN GET LARGER PENSIONS

(The Associated Press.) LONDON, June 29.—In view of the increased cost of living, the government has made a small raise in the scale of payment to the wives and dependent children of interned Germans and Austro-Hungarians. The wife is allowed under the new scale $2.85 with an extra 45 cents for each child.

JAMES BROWN of Brown, Terry & Woodruff of Salt Lake, passed through Tonopah yesterday with his family by auto. They were on their return to the City of Saints.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kitzinger and their family, consisting of Helen, Morris, Franklin and Staly, and their chauffeur, arrived last evening from Yonkers, New York, and stopped for a day at the Mizpah. They were greatly pleased with Tonopah and regretted that their schedule made it imperative for them to continue on without further delay. Mr. Kitzinger said:

"We came via Ely and found the journey, particularly across Nevada, very pleasant indeed. We were 12 hours from Ely and could have negotiated the distance in much less time, but we had tire trouble. The road is excellent and there is little dust or other discomfort. We will advise our friends to come this way when crossing the continent."

MONARCH PITTSBURG LOOKS BETTER TODAY

The great activity in Monarch Pittsburg stock today was due to the improved appearance of the ledge in both the crosscuts on the eighth level. Superintendent Smith does not claim that the entire faces of both openings will ship, but specimens brought up show the white metal in considerable quantity.

PASTIME THEATER

Owing to an error in shipment having again been made by the film exchange, the Pastime will be dark tonight. However, tomorrow an exceptionally good picture will be shown, entitled, "A Daughter of the People." This will be the last show at the Pastime under the management of Mr. Warren, who has sold the business to Mr. Smith of the Butler. The picture tomorrow is a Dyreda Art film, produced by the World Film corporation. Arthur Stillman, millionaire mill owner, ruins the town of Rockton by closing his works. But he consents to re-open them on the plea of Dell Hamilton, a beautiful mill worker, if she will agree to marry him. She does so, thereby renouncing Sam Lloyd, her workman sweetheart. In her luxurious surroundings Dell discovers, after a time, that she is not legally married to Stillman. When she goes back to the mill, the girls scorn her; so does her family; so does Sam Lloyd, who has chosen another girl. Meanwhile, Arthur Stillman has fallen genuinely in love with Dell, and she with him, and they are made happy by a genuine marriage.—Adv.

BUTLER THEATER

Today the concluding chapters of "The Exploits of Elaine." This episode is full of thrills, intrigue, plot and counterplot, and is dominated throughout by the magnetic personality of the charming Elaine Dodge. In the last episode Craig Kennedy's marvelous invention, a super-force torpedo to revolutionize warfare, has been stolen. Kennedy himself has disappeared, although Elaine has a note from him begging her not to grieve whatever happens for he is safe. Elaine's dog digging in a plot of palms unearthed the lost torpedo and carries it to the attic where he drops it behind a trunk. Elaine is then suspected by a Washington secret service man of stealing the torpedo, which makes it interesting for her. The fable of "The Highroller and the Dizzy Blondine," a George Ade comedy, something that will make you laugh. "The Master of the Sword," drama. Tomorrow Mrs. Leslie Carter, who plays the lead in George Kleine's beautiful six-part film, "Du Barry," from the famous play, wears a number of expensive gowns that are sure to attract comment by the feminine portion of the audience. Overture for today, "Roland," by R. Schteppeger.—Adv.

AIRDOME

"Rip Van Winkle," the old story with which everyone is so familiar, will be seen at the Airdome tonight and tomorrow as a five-part comedy drama. The story in brief is: Rip Van Winkle is a happy-go-lucky sort of a fellow whose wife, Gretchen, makes a scant living for herself and daughter Meenie by washing. Rip is quite a favorite about the village, especially with the children, and once at a dance Gretchen catches him embracing one of the young girls and drives him out into a storm. Rip taking with him his little Meenie and her little friend Heinrich. A terrible lightning storm rages and Heinrich
